WLA AMBASSADORS

A nationwide, nonprofit, firm-agnostic membership community dedicated to attracting, advancing, and advocating for women in the financial advising profession.

As a nonprofit organization, the Women's Leadership Alliance is dedicated to building a community for positive change. WLA Ambassador members engage in thought-leadership, professional development, resource-sharing, networking, and advocacy to advance the representation of women in financial advising.

Our purpose is to foster an inclusive, dynamic environment of advisors, leaders, partners and allies where members can collaborate and collectively propel women's progress in this industry.

AMBASSADORS enjoy these benefits:

- Membership in a professional network, forging meaningful connections with other industry professionals committed to advancing women in financial advising.
- Exclusive invitations to WLA virtual and in-person thought-leadership and networking events.
- Access to business and personal development webinars and resources.
- Discounts for professional services from WLA Ambassador vendor partners.
- Access to Regional Ambassador Circles, Early-Career Circle, and WLA Mentorship program.
- Access to ready-made presentations and tools to engage in outreach and advocacy.
- Recognition on the WLA website and in your own professional materials as a WLA Ambassador, showcasing your dedication to advancing women in the FA profession.

Early-Career Advisor Circle

A safe space for early career women advisors to navigate challenges and setbacks, and to celebrate one another's wins and triumphs. The Early-Career Advisor Circle meets monthly for deep-dive discussions as well as business development.

Regional Ambassador Circles

Ambassadors Circles are currently forming in regions throughout the country. Regional Circle Members coordinate support and advocacy together within their shared community, city or state. When you become a WLA Ambassador, you'll have the opportunity to join or start an Ambassador Circle in your area!

Ambassador Business Partners

Businesses dedicated to attracting, retaining, and advancing more women in financial advising have the opportunity to partner with the WLA and in advancing a nationwide movement for positive change in the financial advising industry, and receive access to WLA Ambassador resources, data, and advocacy tools.
